Important Health Warning About Playing Video Games

Photosensitive seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these "photosensitive epileptic seizures" while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms, including lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures. The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by taking the following precautions: Sit farther from the screen; use a smaller screen; play in a well-lit room; do not play when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

ESRB Game Ratings

The Entertainment Software Rating Board (ESRB) ratings are designed to provide consumers, especially parents, with concise, impartial guidance about the age-appropriateness and content of computer and video games. This information can help consumers make informed purchase decisions about which games they deem suitable for their children and families.

ESRB ratings have two equal parts:

- Rating Symbols suggest age appropriateness for the game. These symbols appear on the front of virtually every game box available for retail sale or rental in the United States and Canada.
- Content Descriptors indicate elements in a game that may have triggered a particular rating and/or may be of interest or concern. The descriptors appear on the back of the box next to the rating symbol.

THE STORY

All fans of The Lord of the Rings know of Frodo's brave quest to destroy the One Ring at Mount Doom, but what if the Fellowship had failed? What if Sauron had reclaimed the One Ring and was able to turn back the free peoples of Middle-earth?

The Lord of the Rings: Conquest allows you to fight alongside and take control of heroes such as Legolas, Gandalf, and Aragorn. You must aid the Fellowship in the defense of Helm's Deep, the battle against the Witch-king, the siege of Minas Tirith, and more.

If the shadows of Mordor beckon you, heed their call and rewrite history by helping Sauron regain the One Ring. By joining with and playing as dark heroes such as the Witch-king and Sauron himself, you will wreak havoc and take back locations the Dark Lord once believed to be lost.

PLAYING THE GAME

In The Lord of the Rings: Conquest, you must protect, storm, and pillage legendary Middle-earth locations such as Minas Tirith, Helm's Deep, and the Black Gate of Mordor. Each setting is vast and the battles at each location present both challenges as well as opportunities for each character class.

Whether capturing and holding control points against hordes of Uruk-hai, demolishing rumbling lines of Trolls, or participating in both sides of the War of the Ring in the epic Campaigns, you must cooperate with your allies and outmaneuver your foes to save the land of Middle-earth—or destroy it.

In The Lord of the Rings: Conquest, the fate of Middle-earth is not in the hands of Aragorn, Frodo, the Witch-king, or Sauron—it's in yours.

RANKS

GRUNTS

Throughout your campaign to save or destroy Middle-earth, grunts will fight alongside you and stand against you in masses. While great in number, these less-disciplined foes will fall easily under your might.

OFFICERS

In nearly every single-player and multiplayer mode, you will battle as and against officers of many classes. Officers can block attacks and have unique abilities that you will have to master and overcome to be victorious.

CAPTAINS

Captains are particularly challenging foes that you will encounter in the War of the Ring and Rise of Sauron campaigns. They can be identified by the flags on their backs. Captains have the same abilities as their officer counterparts, but have much more health and are more effective in combat. Be quick, cautious, and cunning to overcome them.

GIANTS

In your battles you will confront, fight alongside, and take control of mighty Ents and fearsome Trolls. These giants can grab, throw, and crush their opponents with ease.

HEROES

In The Lord of the Rings: Conquest, you are given the opportunity to control and fight against heroes from both sides of the War of the Ring such as Aragorn, Gandalf, the Witch-king, and even Sauron himself.

Heroes are controlled much like their officer counterparts, but are much more powerful and have unique combat abilities, unmatched by anyone else on the battlefield.

In the campaign modes, heroes will be called to battle when they are needed most for victory. In all multiplayer modes, the best player on the team will be awarded a hero when his team reaches a certain percentage of the points needed for victory.

MACHINES OF WAR

In each battle, you will use and stand against many weapons of war. Fell Beasts and Eagles will swoop down and attack from the skies, catapults and ballistae can be fired to demolish enemy forces, and wargs, horses, and even Oliphaunts can be mounted to help turn the tide of battle.

CHARACTER SELECTION

Whether a proud soldier in the Army of the West or a despicable creature of Mordor, you can choose from four diverse character classes.

Each class has unique special abilities that require energy to perform. Slay foes using normal attacks to gain energy.

After dying or beginning a new mission, you are presented with the Character Selection screen. Highlight a character and press A to select it. When applicable, heroes appear on the selection screen instead.

WARRIOR

Specializing in hand-to-hand combat, Warriors are strong and can withstand even the most devastating of attacks. While they lack the speed and grace to stage hit-and-runs, Warriors can use fire sword attacks to ravage their enemies, cut through their defenses, and set fire to their weapons of war.

- Block LT
- Evade LT + C
- Throw Axe RT (pull and hold to target, then release)
- Fire Strike LB + X
- Whirlwind Sweep LB + Y
- Flame of Fury LB + B

ARCHER

The farther away you are from an archer, the less likely you are to realize that he's about to stick an arrow between your eyes. By pulling and holding LT, archers can zoom in, allowing them to achieve headshots for maximum damage.

- Zoom In LT
- Multi Arrow LB
- Poison Arrow Y then RT
- Fire Arrow B then RT
- Melee Attack X

MAGE

Preferring to strike with lightning rather than blades, mages deal massive damage with their firewalls and can chain multiple enemies with lightning. Though extremely frail, mages can heal themselves and their allies.

- Shield LT
- Lightning RT (pull and hold to charge, then release)
- Heal LB
- Shockwave Y
- Firewall B
- Melee Attack X

SCOUT

Weak of muscle but fleet of foot, scouts use quick darting attacks to make up for their physical weakness. Faster than the other classes, scouts can use stealth to stay hidden while covering large territories in a hurry.

- Throw Bomb RT (pull and hold to target, then release)
- Cloak LB (tap again to become visible)
- Backstab RB (while in stealth mode and behind enemy)
- Energy Attacks LB + X, LB + Y, LB + B

HINTS AND TIPS

- With warrior and scout officers and heroes, try stringing together melee attacks, starting with quick attacks and ending with heavy attacks. For example, X, X, X, Y, Y, B is among the warrior's deadliest combos!
- You can cancel a poison or fire arrow without firing it by pressing the same button you used to ready it.
- As an archer, keep your distance from melee units by firing poison arrows to slow them down, or knock them down with a fire arrow or melee attack.
- You can change your character class at any time by returning to your team's control points and pressing RB.
- The mage's shield blocks all incoming projectiles, including thrown axes, bombs, arrows, and even lightning. Partner with archers in multiplayer, protecting them from ranged attacks while they slay your enemies from afar.
- Scouts and mages gain energy slowly over time. If you're in danger, try evading or shielding yourself until you have enough energy to improve your odds.
